The Alpha Blood Is the Spirit of the Prophets and the Great King

Series:

The Alpha Blood Is the Spirit of the Prophets and the Great King

Sermon Summary:

This sermon explores the profound concept of the “alpha blood” – the original, innocent blood of Christ that believers are called to receive through spiritual exchange. The pastor emphasizes the importance of understanding our true identity in Christ, not as sinners saved by grace, but as new creations with the very nature of God. He contrasts this with the “blood of giants” or carnal nature that must be crucified. The message challenges listeners to fully embrace their spiritual identity through prayer, fasting, studying Scripture, and giving, which allows God’s power to work through them.

Key Points:

- The importance of the “four pillars”: prayer, fasting, studying Scripture, and giving
- The concept of the “alpha blood” as the innocent, original blood of Christ
- The need to exchange our carnal nature for Christ’s divine nature
- The power of understanding our true identity in Christ
- The futility of trying to rehabilitate the carnal mind
- The importance of being driven by the Holy Spirit
- The connection between spiritual identity and effective ministry
- The danger of lukewarm faith and double-mindedness

Scripture Reference:

- Revelation 13:8 – “The Lamb slain from the foundation of the world”
- Romans 8:6-9 – The carnal mind versus the spiritual mind
- Revelation 12:11 – Overcoming by the blood of the Lamb and the word of testimony

Key Takeaways:

1. The “alpha blood” refers to the original, innocent blood of Christ that was slain from the foundation of the world.
2. Our identity and salvation come from having this alpha blood, not from our works or denominational affiliations.
3. The four pillars of spiritual growth are prayer, fasting, studying, and giving (tithes and offerings).
4. True spiritual transformation involves exchanging our carnal nature for Christ’s nature.
5. God wants to bring the church into a season of building, planting, and rest after a period of spiritual warfare.

Discussion Questions:

1. How does understanding the concept of “alpha blood” change your perspective on salvation and identity in Christ?
2. The speaker emphasizes the importance of all four spiritual pillars. Which pillar do you find most challenging, and why?
3. Discuss the difference between having a “carnal mind” and a “spiritual mind.” How have you experienced this in your own life?
4. How does the idea that “no man has seen God at any time” challenge or affirm your understanding of our relationship with God?
5. The sermon mentions that God wants to bring the church into a season of building and planting. What might this look like in our lives and community?
6. How does the concept of “making an exchange” (giving up our old nature for Christ’s nature) relate to your understanding of salvation and discipleship?

Practical Applications:

1. Commit to practicing all four spiritual pillars this week. Keep a journal of your experiences and insights.
2. Reflect on areas of your life where you might still be operating with a “carnal mind.” Ask God to help you develop a more spiritual perspective in these areas.
3. Consider your unique gifts and how they might “make room” for you to serve others and glorify God. Brainstorm ways to develop and use these gifts.
4. Practice identifying yourself as a “son/daughter of the living God” rather than by other labels or affiliations. Notice how this shifts your perspective and interactions.
5. Set aside time for meditation and prayer, focusing on your identity in Christ and the reality of His blood in your life.
6. Look for opportunities to give sacrificially this week, whether through tithes, offerings, or acts of service. Reflect on how giving aligns you with God’s nature.
7. Share with the group next week how applying these principles has impacted your spiritual life and awareness of God’s presence.

The Alpha Blood Is the Spirit of the Prophets and the Great King

1 How does the concept of 'alpha blood' relate to our understanding of salvation and spiritual identity?

2 What are the implications of viewing ourselves as either 'Christ' or 'anti-Christ', with no middle ground?

3 How might focusing on the 'four pillars' (prayer, fasting, study, and giving) transform our spiritual lives and relationship with God?

4 In what ways does the idea of 'exchanging blood' challenge traditional notions of repentance and conversion?

5 How does the speaker's interpretation of Judas' actions and the 'field of blood' offer a new perspective on God's plan for Gentile inclusion?

The Alpha Blood Is the Spirit of the Prophets and the Great King

6 What are the potential dangers and benefits of viewing spiritual warfare through the lens of blood lineage?

7 How might the concept of being 'driven by the Spirit' change our approach to decision-making and life direction?

8 In what ways does the speaker's emphasis on 'knowing God intimately' challenge common religious practices and beliefs?

9 How does the idea of God working through 'unjust authorities' challenge our understanding of divine sovereignty and human free will?

10 What are the implications of viewing our spiritual gifts as making 'room for us' rather than us seeking opportunities?

Day 1: The Alpha Blood

Reading: Revelation 13:8, John 1:1-5, 14

Devotional: Today we reflect on the concept of the “Alpha Blood” – the blood of Christ that was slain from the foundation of the world. This profound truth reminds us that God’s plan for our redemption wasn’t an afterthought, but was established before time began. As you meditate on this, consider how it changes your perspective on God’s love and purpose for your life. How does knowing that you were in God’s heart and mind from the very beginning impact your sense of worth and belonging? Take time to thank God for His eternal love and foresight in providing salvation through Christ.

Day 2: Exchange of Nature

Reading: 2 Corinthians 5:17-21, Romans 6:1-14

Devotional: The message spoke about exchanging our old nature for Christ’s nature. This exchange is at the heart of what it means to be “born again.” As you read today’s passages, reflect on what it means to be a “new creation” in Christ. What aspects of your old nature do you still struggle with? How can you more fully embrace your new identity in Christ? Ask the Holy Spirit to reveal areas where you need to let go of the old and embrace the new. Remember, this exchange is not about self-improvement, but about allowing Christ’s nature to manifest in and through you.

Day 3: The Spiritual Mind

Reading: Romans 8:1-17, Philippians 2:5-11

Devotional: Today we focus on developing a spiritual mind, as opposed to a carnal mind. The transcription emphasized the importance of seeing things from God’s perspective rather than a worldly one. As you read, consider how your thought patterns align with Christ’s. Are there areas where you tend to default to carnal thinking? How can you cultivate a more spiritually-minded approach to your daily life and challenges? Pray for God to renew your mind and help you see situations and people as He does.

Day 4: Living as Sons of God

Reading: Galatians 4:1-7, 1 John 3:1-3

Devotional: The message highlighted our identity as sons of the living God. This profound truth should shape how we view ourselves and how we live. Reflect on what it means to be a child of God. How does this identity differ from other ways you might define yourself? Consider how embracing this truth might change your approach to challenges, relationships, and your purpose in life. Ask God to help you live fully in the reality of your divine sonship today.

Day 5: Overcoming Through the Blood

Reading: Revelation 12:10-11, Hebrews 10:19-25

Devotional: On our final day, we focus on overcoming through the blood of the Lamb. The transcription emphasized that our victory is not through our own efforts, but through Christ’s finished work. As you read, reflect on areas in your life where you feel defeated or struggle. How can you apply the truth of Christ’s victory to these situations? Remember, our testimony is not just about what we do, but about who we are in Christ. Take time to declare the power of Christ’s blood over your life and circumstances, and step into the overcoming life He has provided for you.
